

Hervé Biauxser, Director of the Ecole Centrale Paris, Has been nominated Director General of Supélec

(Paris, September 2, 2013) – As previously announced on April 2, 2013 through a press release, the French Ministry of Higher Education and Research has officially announced that:

- By decree of the President of the French Republic (August 2, 2013), Dr. Hervé Biauxser has been reappointed as Director of Ecole Centrale Paris for a third term, as of September 1st, 2013.

- And also (August 28, 2013) in accordance with the statutes of Supélec, Dr. Biauxser has been named Director General of the Ecole Supérieure d'Electricité (Supélec), on the advice of the Ministers responsible for Industry and Defence, as of 1st, 2013.

In addition to the presidency of the two schools, Hervé Biauxser will assume the responsibility of the creation of CentraleSupélec, a new engineering school created by a Council of State decree in early 2014. A five year plan 2015-2019 will lay out the strategic political orientations and choices of the new institution.

CentraleSupélec will be located in Saclay valley, at the south of Paris, in Gif-sur-Yvette where two new buildings will be built by Centrale Paris (by 2017) near Supélec. This new CentraleSupélec campus will be in addition to the existing Supélec campuses of Metz and Rennes.

CentraleSupélec has the ambition to become both a cluster of reference in the field of engineering and systems sciences and a leading school for higher education and research, ranked among the world's finest institutions.
